

Meet The Honors College Team

Karla Repman, M.Ed.
Director, The Honors College

Karla serves as director, success coach, and recruiter for The Honors College. She facilitates transfer and college navigation honors seminars, supports the Honors Student Council and Honors Club, manages student engagement activities, and meets with both current and prospective honors students each quarter. She is a lifelong Seattleite and Shoreline graduate who transferred to University of Washington for her undergraduate degree.

Audrey Fischer, M.A.
Academic Advisor

Audrey supports honors students in degree and transfer planning and is the faculty advisor for the Shoreline Scholars program. Prior to Shoreline, she taught middle school mathematics on the Rosebud Reservation in Mission, South Dakota, and coordinated transfer advising at Bellevue College. She has an M.A. in Education Policy and Organizational Leadership from Stanford University and a B.A. from Gonzaga University.

Terry L. Taylor
Assistant Dean, The Honors College

Terry is a professor of history, political science, and international studies who has been involved with the honors program at Shoreline since its founding. He also serves as advisor for the Pi Iota Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the international honor society for two-year colleges. A graduate of Austin College, he completed his graduate work at the University of Illinois, and has been at Shoreline since 1997.

Brooke Zimmers
Assistant Dean, The Honors College

Brooke Zimmers is a professor communication studies who has been involved with the honors program at Shoreline since its founding. She teaches Introduction to Communication, Interpersonal Communication, Public Speaking, The Art of Storytelling, and Communication for Social Change. She is an active member of Equity and Social Justice at Shoreline. She studied and worked with homeless youth in Seattle and earned her M.A. from the University of Washington and her B.A. from the University of Colorado at Boulder. She has been full-time at Shoreline since 1999.